

Update 17 March 2020

Employment Bridging Emergency Fund (NOW)

COVID 19 Coronavirus

Reduced working hours scheme replaced by NOW

In brief:

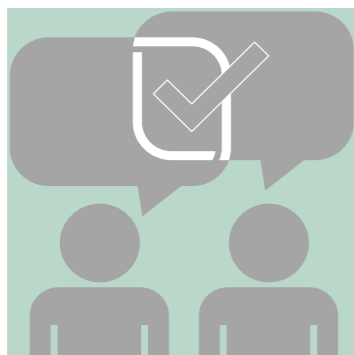

1. Reimbursement for 90% of salary bill relating to expected loss of turnover.
2. For all employees on the payroll, whether they have a fixed term or indefinite term contract, as well as on-call workers (zero hours contract, min/max, etc.).
3. Immediate advance of 80% upon application for compensation.*
4. Valid from 1 March to 31 May, inclusive (government may extend).

Conditions:

1. Expected turnover loss of at least 20%.
2. No dismissals for economic reasons during the compensation period.
3. Continued payment of 100% salary to employees during compensation period.

How do you apply?

- Via the Employee Insurance Agency UWV.
- Have you already applied for a benefit under the reduced working hours scheme? That will be deemed to be a NOW application.
- Applications cannot be filed immediately: details are being worked out, but in the short term.
